Report:-

An educational tour was organized by the Department of Commerce Yashwantrao Chavan Mahavidyalaya, Tuljapur for the students of B.Com 1st, 2nd and 3rd year at Buldhana Multi State Cooperative society, Tuljapur. The aim was to empower students to undertake money transactions independently and understand how to practically work in a bank. The aim also to encourage students to optional banking as career options. This educational trip to the bank was an attempt to teach students how mathematical skills and logical ability are reflected in our everyday life. In the bank the students learnt how to open their own bank accounts. The students learnt the use of ATMs as well.

Branch managers were given detailed information regarding the bank activities. Students and staff.
