- 7) Report:-

Department of English has organized a short seminar for the students we were studying in B.A. Second and B.A. Third Year Classes. Seminar for students is a small academic activity but can prepare the students to face the examinations courageously. Hence we decided to arrange a classroom seminar for the students.

At first the students were noticed properly with enough instructions and guidance. They were also asked to select the topic with their own. They were asked to perform with their own teaching materials like posters, boards, notes etc. Students participated enthusiastically in this academic activity and they had attempted to present their opinions on English literature English grammar, the difficulties in teaching and learning English etc.

This was a successful attempt of our department of English for the students which will be helpful for them in future career as a teacher and performer.

I am thankful to the Principal Vice Principal, my colleague, the students and the office staff.

Thanking you all.

Yours,
