The Department of Commerce, in collaboration with Samarth Computer, Tuljapur, organized a Seminar on the topic "Digital Banking in India: Opportunities and Challenges" on 17th February 2025. The session was led by expert resource persons Mr. S. G. Aurade and Mrs. Naik Anuradha, who shared valuable insights into the evolution, scope, and limitations of digital banking in India. Key highlights of the session included: Overview of digital banking services such as UPI, internet banking, mobile wallets, and online fund transfers. Opportunities created through digital finance, including financial inclusion, ease of transactions, reduced costs, and fintech growth.

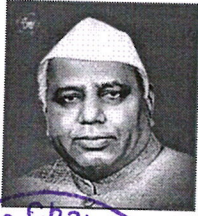

Challenges such as cyber security threats, digital illiteracy, rural accessibility, and data privacy concerns. Real-life case studies of successful fintech startups and digital initiatives by Indian banks. Career scope in digital banking, fintech, and cyber security domains.

The seminar was attended by 45 students, who engaged actively in the Q&A session. The program aimed to enhance students' understanding of the digital financial ecosystem and prepare them for future careers in finance and technology. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating the collaboration of Samarth Computer, Tuljapur, and the resource persons for their contribution.
